MEMBER'S CORNER

Being relatively new to photography, I was extremely hesitant to sign up for the Puerto Rico Photo Trek fearing that I would be the most inexperienced participant and might feel intimidated. Well, that couldn't have been farther from the truth! In actuality, the whole experience was unbelievable from start to finish.

Registration was well organized and participants and staff immediately engaged in conversation setting the stage for a very relaxed, friendly atmosphere. The evening program introduced us to the two professional photographers with whom we would work. Mark Alberhasky was the first to present and wowed us with a slide show of some of his fantastic images and at the same time giving us insight into his background and processing techniques. The second professional to present was Rob Van Petten, who also has a long list of credentials and currently specializes in commercial advertising photographing high fashion models and placing them in fun settings. Immediately, we could see that we would be exposed to two very different perspectives and techniques.

Our shooting locations ranged from a quiet, sunny beach to the misty El Yunque Rainforest, Ponce with its famous black and red fire station, folk dancers in different venues, and last but not least Old San Juan itself with its forts, cathedral, brightly colored and colonial architecture, cobblestone streets, and friendly people. Each day we worked specifically with one mentor and then the next day with the other. Each mentor brought their own professional tips and tricks and definitely complimented each other giving us much greater depth and understanding.

The mentors were always available and ready to answer any question. No query was too basic or too complex and all were responded to in a very professional, friendly and informative manner. The Digital Review Sessions were outright learning experiences as well since each participant had images critiqued in an extremely positive manner with suggestions made for improvement. Thus, we learned from each other during those sessions, gathering ideas for different perspectives and possible new venues. We learned to set goals each day focusing on a particular type of subject, story line, or perhaps only using one lens to see how we could utilize its capabilities.

Time was spent discussing the general features and capabilities of Photoshop and all questions on particular features were answered either in group discussion or individually as the situation presented itself.

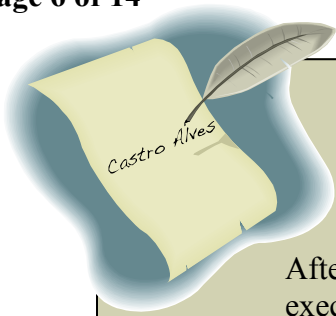

By the time Sunday arrived, we had established many new friendships and exchanged a multitude of ideas. In fact, I believe we were all sorry to see the workshop end. All-in-all, this was a fantastic experience for me, and I hope to have the opportunity to participate in future treks.

Information on the Treks is available at www.mentorseries.com. They are sponsored by American Photo Magazine and Nikon although many participants used cameras other than Nikon. Mark Alberhasky can be located at www.imagemag.com and Rob Van Petten's website is www.robvanpetten.com. Mark hails from Kentucky and Rob splits his time between his home in Rhode Island and his studio in NYC.

I will be returning to CT on Apr 22 and look forward to seeing everyone soon.

Best regards,

Pat Lawrence

LETTER FROM OUR C.C.C. PRESIDENT

After many months of discussions and with the support of many members the executive committee has taken a positive step to creating a more exciting Canton Camera Club. The Club needed to do something to attract new members, make it more fun and exciting for current members, and improve our financial resources.

We have found that place. The Harwinton Public Library located on route 118. The library is very excited to have us, and one of the first things that we are going to do is have a photo show for September and October. We would like all members to put pictures into this show whether to sell or just to show. More information will be available at the April and May meetings.

The executive committee is saddened at leaving the Church that has been a meeting place of the Canton Camera Club for a long, long time, but we were unable to find a comparable location in Canton.

We will be discussing the move to the library in the April and May meetings and your thoughts and suggestion are wanted to help use make the move as flawless as possible. If you need to have any questions answered or have a suggestion to make you can contact me at home 860-585-7611.

I hope that everyone finds this as exciting as Peg and I. See you the April Meeting

Frank Giarnese

President
